

Island Pond Baptist Church | Pastor Kyle Lewis | December 10, 2023

Rahab: Second Chances

Matthew 1:5, Joshua 2

True faith produces _____.

Rahab Was Risking:

1. Rahab put her _____ on the line.
2. Rahab was _____ her own past and people.
3. Rahab was identifying with the _____ people.

The story of Rahab is a story of _____ as well.

Rahab Had This Against Her:

1. Rahab was a _____.
2. Rahab was a _____.
3. Rahab was an _____.

Island Pond Baptist Church | Pastor Kyle Lewis | December 10, 2023

Rahab: Second Chances

Matthew 1:5, Joshua 2

True faith produces _____.

Rahab Was Risking:

1. Rahab put her _____ on the line.
2. Rahab was _____ her own past and people.
3. Rahab was identifying with the _____ people.

The story of Rahab is a story of _____ as well.

Rahab Had This Against Her:

1. Rahab was a _____.
2. Rahab was a _____.
3. Rahab was an _____.

4. Rahab was a _____.

If God _____ a vile sinner like Rahab, he can redeem ____ too.

1. Just as Rahab put her life on the line, we are called to ___ to _____.

2. Just as Rahab renounced her own past and people, we are called to renounce our own ____ and _____.

3. Just as Rahab identified with the Jewish people, we are called to take on a new _____.

As Christians, our allegiance is ultimately to Christ, not to a country, political party, or president.

But God is not calling us to only make America _____. He is calling us to make Christ great in _____ (and everywhere else).

In getting rid of the old life, we are given a ____, better life.

4. Rahab was a _____.

If God _____ a vile sinner like Rahab, he can redeem ____ too.

1. Just as Rahab put her life on the line, we are called to ___ to _____.

2. Just as Rahab renounced her own past and people, we are called to renounce our own ____ and _____.

3. Just as Rahab identified with the Jewish people, we are called to take on a new _____.

As Christians, our allegiance is ultimately to Christ, not to a country, political party, or president.

But God is not calling us to only make America _____. He is calling us to make Christ great in _____ (and everywhere else).

In getting rid of the old life, we are given a ____, better life.