God Doesn't Need Our Help

Genesis 16

Bad things happen when we think we know _____ than God (16:1-16).

Genesis 16:1-3 - Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. She had a female Egyptian servant whose name was Hagar. 2 And Sarai said to Abram, "Behold now, the Lord has prevented me from bearing children. Go in to my servant; it may be that I shall obtain children by her." And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

4 And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress. 5 And Sarai said to Abram, "May the wrong done to me be on you! I gave my servant to your embrace, and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked on me with contempt. May the Lord judge between you and me!" 6 But Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your servant is in your power; do to her as you please." Then Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her.

Where are you _____ to help God out?

Maybe you have _____ intentions and are trying to do something that would bring glory to God.

Maybe what you are seeking to do is _____ of the will of God.

"It makes me _____."

Where is Christ in this passage?

The Hebrew word for "angel" may also be translated "messenger." There is an element of mystery about this figure. In 19:1 the "two angels" who arrive at Sodom resemble human beings (in 18:2 they are called "men"). When "the angel of the LORD" speaks, his words are perceived as being God's words. Therefore, the impression is given that the angel is identical with God. On this basis some Christians believe that "the angel of the LORD" is the preincarnate Christ.

John 4:39 - Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all that I ever did."

Both stories at the well reveal the _____ of Jesus... he extends grace/mercy to the sinful and hurting.
