

Island Pond Baptist Church | Pastor Kyle Lewis | August 30, 2026

UNLESS THE LORD

Psalm 127

1) Unless the Lord _____, our work is empty (v. 1)

Psalm 127:1

Work faithfully, but stop believing your effort _____ the outcome.

John 15:5

The danger of _____. (We begin thinking that because our work is necessary, our work is sufficient.)

The ultimate focus is on significance and _____ value.

1 Corinthians 3:6-7

Work hard, work faithfully, _____ upon God.

Island Pond Baptist Church | Pastor Kyle Lewis | August 30, 2026

UNLESS THE LORD

Psalm 127

1) Unless the Lord _____, our work is empty (v. 1)

Psalm 127:1

Work faithfully, but stop believing your effort _____ the outcome.

John 15:5

The danger of _____. (We begin thinking that because our work is necessary, our work is sufficient.)

The ultimate focus is on significance and _____ value.

1 Corinthians 3:6-7

Work hard, work faithfully, _____ upon God.

2) Unless the Lord _____, our worry is useless (v. 2)

Psalm 127:2

God continues being faithful even when you _____ working.

There comes a point when faith turns off the _____ and goes to sleep.

Matthew 6:27

3) When the Lord _____, receive his blessings gratefully (vv. 3–5)

Psalm 127:3-5

Children are a _____, not a burden.

God's gifts often begin as _____ before they become obvious assets.

Ruth 4

Our greatest blessings are often _____ rather than achieved.

Therefore, let's receive them gratefully from the Lord.

1 Corinthians 4:7, Ephesians 2:8-9

Work faithfully. Rest trustfully. Receive gratefully.

2) Unless the Lord _____, our worry is useless (v. 2)

Psalm 127:2

God continues being faithful even when you _____ working.

There comes a point when faith turns off the _____ and goes to sleep.

Matthew 6:27

3) When the Lord _____, receive his blessings gratefully (vv. 3–5)

Psalm 127:3-5

Children are a _____, not a burden.

God's gifts often begin as _____ before they become obvious assets.

Ruth 4

Our greatest blessings are often _____ rather than achieved.

Therefore, let's receive them gratefully from the Lord.

1 Corinthians 4:7, Ephesians 2:8-9

Work faithfully. Rest trustfully. Receive gratefully.